AID COUNTY UNIT

MINISTERS CONFER TOMORROW OVER CAMPAIGN.

ENLIST ALL MINISTERS

Effort to Carry Liquor Amendment Starts Sunday and Continues One Week—Big Rallies Sunday.

Every minister in Nodaway county who is pastor of a Protestant church has been enlisted in the campaign which is to start Sunday and continue until November 1, for the upbuilding of the county unit bill at the general election, November 3. The ball will be started rolling in earnest with a banquet and council of ministers, which is to be held at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Linville hotel.

Preliminary plans for the movement were made at a meeting of the Ministerial Alliance, which was held at the residence of the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox this morning. It was decided to issue a call to every minister in the county to attend the dinner and council tomorrow and to bring along one layman of his church. A rough program of the campaign to start Sunday also was drafted. It will be submitted at the council tomorrow for approval or change.

As there are about fifty churches of Protestant faiths in Nodaway county and one layman and the pastor are invited from each of them, it is believed fully seventy-five men will attend the dinner and council at noon tomorrow. The conference which follows the luncheon is expected to continue through most of the afternoon.

Two big "county unit" rallies will be held in Maryville next Sunday night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. They will be held in the First Christian church and the First Methodist church. The holding of two meetings is necessitated because of the lack of room in either to contain all the crowd that is anticipated.

The principal speakers at the two meetings will be out-of-town ministers and laymen, as the Maryville pastors will address audiences in other churches in Nodaway county.

During each night next week, except Saturday night, county unit meetings will be held in every church and many of the school houses of the county. The campaign will formally end with a rousing whirlwind campaign Sunday night, November 1.

LOSES PURSE; FORUM FINDS IT.

Bedison Girl Returns Home-Come's Money, After Seeing Want Ad.

A little three-line want ad inserted Monday in The Democrat-Forum stating that a purse had been lost, brought a ready response yesterday. Mrs. J. T. Mount, living near Bedison, explained that her daughter had found a purse containing two five-dollar bills and some silver last Saturday night, and upon seeing the want ad had sent the purse into Maryville by her mother.

The ad was inserted at the direction of Miss Lillia Turpin, living ten miles southwest of this city. She said she had lost such an amount of money while going from the northwest corner of the court house square to the east side, Saturday night.

Miss Mount is to be rewarded.

Becomes an Odd Fellow.

Charles Robinson was initiated into the mysteries of the I. O. O. F. last night. Four more will probably be initiated next Tuesday night, as they were unable to be present last night. The initiation of the several new members is the direct result of a campaign which the local lodge has been conducting. It will close the first week in November with a grand banquet.

The illness which resulted in the young man's death was caused by the infection of a carbuncle on his nose.

The weekly concerts of the Maryville Commercial band will continue through this month according to T. B. Maulding, director. The concerts of the last two weeks, however, were cancelled, the first on account of rain and the one last week because of the home-coming celebration. A good program is promised tomorrow night if the weather is agreeable. If not, then it will be held Friday night. The program follows:

The political race is on.

With noses to the ground and every muscle a tingle, the Democrats have taken the lead in the political race in Nodaway county which was formally begun this week. Following in order are the Republicans, Progressives, Socialists, Prohibitionists and Socialist-Labor adherents. The race is scheduled to continue with but slight intermission for rest and sleep, until the polls close the night of November 3.

Cigars and small tokens of friendship and brotherly love are passing thick and fast from candidate to voter and cards, posters and flyers depicting the features of the handsome political racers, stare at one from every conceivable nook and corner.

All Democrats.

The democrats held three meetings last night—at Quitman, and the Davis and the Singrey school houses. But really the evidence showed at these meetings that it was absolutely unnecessary for the mule adherents to fret and fume—it is all democratic. Every body said he was going to vote "her straight" down the democratic county ticket anyway and that cigars, cards and speeches were useless. You could not turn them with a hot poker.

The Republicans are also making a fight through the country, but the reports coming into the county committee, it is freely admitted, are not altogether encouraging. They will continue to make a campaign however for the next two weeks in the hopes of winning over a few votes. The Progressives are making a good fight.

Charles F. McCaffrey and Henry Westfall spoke at Quitman last night while George Pat Wright was the speaker at the Davis School House. Ellis G. Cook, M. E. Ford, Fred Yeoman and William Blackford addressed the Singrey school house audience.

But one meeting and that at Parnell will be held tomorrow night. Clyde, Clearmont and Elmo will be visited tonight.

Here from St. Joseph.

Edward Condon, who is employed by the Robinson Shoe company of St. Joseph, came to Maryville last evening and visited until this morning with his brother, A. B. Condon of Trinidad, Col., who has been spending the past ten days with his mother, Mrs. B. E. Condon.

Lisbon Reports Revolution Has Been Put Down—German Attempt to Take Dunkirk Unsuccessful.

London, Oct. 21.—An engagement between several German torpedo boats and hostile submarines, believed to be British, near Reugen Island, off the north Prussian coast, is reported from Stockholm, Sweden. No details are given. The naval attack is believed to be still on.

Lisbon, Oct. 21.—A revolutionary outbreak in the Portuguese cities of Braganza and Mafra, under the leadership of Adriano Beca, former colonel, has been promptly put down, according to an official announcement made here today.

London, Oct. 21.—The Kaiser's forces are making supreme efforts to take the port of Dunkirk, but still have made little headway. The allies have succeeded so far in maintaining a firm stand.

TALK POLITICS; STILL IN MUD.

Republican Exponents Wait Through Night in Bull Frog Nest.

To sit shivering throughout a chilly, fall night and list to the frogs' last croak of the season was the experience of a covey of Republicans Monday night on their return from a political rally in Conception Junction. The victims were Frank P. Reuillard, Charles J. Merrigan and Eugene Briggs.

While returning from the Conception meeting in Reuillard's car, a large, bottomless, mud hole was discovered by the motor near Arkoe. The wheels sunk down into the ooze and the motor fell asleep, but not so the Republican leaders.

After fretting and fuming throughout the late hours of night and the wee and, not quite so wee, small hours of the morning after, they got the car onto firm earth and rolled into Maryville at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, just one-half a day late.

Shepherd Tours State.

Prof. Frank Shepherd, a new man in the department of industrial pedagogy, is touring the state and speaking at the different teachers' institutes on his specialty, manual training.

Prof. Shepherd, in presenting his subject, is demonstrating how industrial work can be taught in small town and district schools without the addition of a special instructor in the teaching force. He will travel during the months of October, November and December, giving exhibitions to show how the teaching can be carried on. Later printed instructions will be sent to those people who are interested in taking up the work.

During the winter Professor Shepherd will travel over the state, visiting the schools that have already established manual training courses, aiding the instructing wherever possible.

In this connection it is interesting to note that every year there is a greater demand for manual training teachers than the college can supply. The industrial arts course, of which Mr. Brandon is the head, has been in operation for two years and is just beginning to get the attention that it deserves.—The Daily Gazette-Times of Corvallis, Ore.

Mr. Torrance has been in the mercantile business at Gibbon for seven years past and is a successful merchant. He has always taken an active part in the administration of city affairs at Gibbon, but made his first political plunge when he was given the Republican nomination for representative.

IT'S UP TO YOU

TO ENCOURAGE THE PRESIDENT BY YOUR VOTE.

OTHER PARTIES HELP

To Support Every Administration Measure—Re-Elect Stone and Boomer.

"Republicans ought to stop criticizing the Democratic administration or stop voting for its measures," said Congressman Cyrus Cline of the twelfth district of Indiana in a recent speech in the national house of representatives.

His remark was inspired by the fact that every measure—every one—proposed by Woodrow Wilson has been supported by both Republicans and Progressives as well as Democrats.

No other president from Washington down ever has been accorded such support by members of the opposition. Here, in brief, is the record of final votes in the house and senate on the principal acts of the Wilson administration:

Underwood tariff, reducing the tax of necessities of life: House, 255 to 104, 3 Republicans, 3 Progressives and 1 Independent supporting; senate, 44 to 37, supported by 1 Republican and 1 Progressive.

Federal bank reserve, breaking the grip of Wall street on the finances of the country and providing a more elastic currency: House, 287 to 35, 35 Republicans and 14 Progressives supporting; senate, 54 to 34, 3 Republicans and 1 Progressive supporting.

Clayton anti-trust bill, curbing the trusts and preventing illegal combinations in restraint of trade: House, 297 to 54, 41 Republicans and 15 Progressives supporting; senate, not yet passed.

Rayburn railways securities bill, providing federal supervision of the issuances of railway securities and safeguarding investors against watered stocks: House, 352 to 12, 80 Republicans and 14 Progressives supporting; senate, not yet passed.

Trade commission bill, encouraging expansion of American trade: House, by acclamation, all Republicans and Progressives present, supporting; senate, 53 to 16, 12 Republicans supporting.

Industrial arbitration act, to bring about peaceful settlement of contentions between employers and employees, passed by acclamation in both house and senate, all Republicans and Progressive members of both bodies present supporting.

General dam bill, for the conservation of water power rights: House, 190 to 47, 35 Republicans and 4 Progressives supporting.

Mexican war resolution, giving the president authority to handle the Mexican situation. House, 337 to 37, 77 Republicans and 15 Progressives supporting; senate, 72 to 13, 24 Republicans and 1 Progressive supporting.

Lever agricultural extension bill, to encourage better farming: Passed both house and senate by acclamation, all Republicans and Progressives in both bodies supporting.

The Democrats of Nodaway county plan to finish the political campaign within the county Friday night, October 30, in Maryville, with A. M. Dockery, former governor of Missouri, now third assistant postmaster general, as the principal speaker. But between now and that time they intend to cover every mile of the county and make addresses to the voters at as many places as possible within that length of time.

During the remainder of this week the meetings will be held principally at night in school houses and halls. Beginning about 9 o'clock next Tuesday morning the loyal Democrats will pile into a flock of twenty-five or more panting automobiles about the court house square, and with the Maryville band playing "I'm On My Way," will start on a three days whirlwind finish. The tour of the three days will cover most of the county and all of the towns.

The cars will contain the Democratic speakers, candidates, committeemen and a number of business men of Maryville and towns of the county, besides the band.

URNS ASIDE; CAR IS WRECKED.

Political Motor Runs Into Automobile Near Herron School.

An automobile of Lewis Wilson, living near Council Corners, was wrecked one mile south of the Herron school yesterday afternoon, when another car driven by John K. Sawyers of Maryville, ran into it. John Fisher, the driver, was uninjured. One wheel of the car was torn off, the axle broken and the car otherwise damaged by the collision.

Sawyers was driving his brother, William G. Sawyers, Arthur S. Robey and Dan R. Baker to a Democratic speaking at the Plum Grove school house when the accident happened. They left Maryville about 2 o'clock. According to those who saw the accident, Fisher had turned to the side of the road, and had stopped his car to let Sawyers pass, when the accident occurred.

EDISON DAY October 21

In a practical, helpful way Edison has devoted his life to the service of mankind. He gave to the world the incandescent lamp, and many of the other comforts of modern life. On the day devoted to his honor how can we better show our appreciation of his genius than by equipping our homes, offices, stores and factories with EDISON MAZDA Lamps?

HELP COMES QUICKLY

When Hyomei is Used for Head Colds, Catarrh or Croup.

When your head is all stuffed up causing you dull headaches, difficult breathing, constant sniffing, and you feel generally miserable, there is nothing quite equal to Hyomei to give quick, effective and lasting benefit—yet perfectly harmless, simple to use and inexpensive.

To get quick and certain relief from catarrh or a cold it is most important that the medication goes directly to the inflamed tissue lining the air passages. That's the Hyomei method. Just put a few drops of antiseptic Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every complete outfit, and breathe it—you will feel better at once. It clears the head, quickly relieves the tightness in the chest and that choked-up feeling, all disagreeable nasal discharges, watery eyes and dull headaches surely cease.

So certain is the Orear-Henry Drug Co. of the curative powers of Hyomei for catarrh, croup, asthma and similar diseases that they sell it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan.

Figaro Comments on Gardner's Appeal For Preparedness in War.

Paris, Oct. 21.—The appeal of Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts for a state of preparedness for eventualities in the United States has excited considerable comment here. Gabriel Hanotaux, in an editorial in the Figaro, says:

"This speech indicates a certain evolution in America from two months ago. Furthermore, private letters from the United States show clearly that 80 per cent of American citizens favor the allies. A similar situation exists in South America.

"Germany does not conceal its desire to ruin England and dismember France. The first result of its victory would be the destruction of the English fleet and the possession of one of more French or English ports on the Atlantic. Then America would find itself a maritime neighbor of the colossal empire whose object before everything is economic triumph."

American Held as Spy Is Released.

London, Oct. 21.—W. H. Page, the American ambassador to Great Britain, was advised recently from Washington that Adolph Becker, an Americanized German, was being held at Plymouth as a spy. An investigation showed that Becker and five other men from the Holland-American steamer New Amsterdam had been arrested and held for one day, but were released on representations made by Joseph G. Stephens, the American consul at Plymouth.

Death of Vogel Due to Heart Disease.

New York, Oct. 21.—The sudden death of Frank E. Vogel, vice president of the suspended bank of Henry Siegel & Co., who with Siegel, was under indictment, charging grand larceny, was due solely to heart disease. An autopsy performed by a coroner's physician established this fact.

Austria Reports Two Victories.

"The battles to the east of Chyrow and Przemyśl (both in Galicia) again were very successful for the Austrians. The fighting near Hlyznice was especially severe."

House, 231 to 6, all Progressives and all Republicans and Progressives supporting.

Bill authorizing American registry of foreign built ships: Passed both house and senate by acclamation, all Republicans and Progressives in both bodies supporting.

In view of the above facts, all verified by the Congressional Record, it would seem that President Wilson is entitled to a vote of confidence from the whole people for his efforts to serve the whole public.

This can be done by electing the Democratic candidate for U. S. senator in this state, Senator William J. Stone, and the Democratic candidate for congress, Congressman Charles F. Booher and giving him a harmonious legislative body to support him for the next two years of his term as President.

It's up to you—the voters, to encourage the President by your votes—it's your will he is trying to carry out.

Health First

In buying food articles we must consider several things—economy, results, convenience, reliability; but the most important is Health.

Health means everything. If one gets cheated in buying dresses, shoes or bonnets it is provoking, but the harm is chiefly loss of money. In buying food articles, if imitations or poor stuffs are supplied, there is a loss of money and probably an injury to health also; and good health is beyond price.

Remember these facts when buying baking powder.

Question Should Be "How to Get the Eggs," says the Committee.

On account of the high price of feed and the unrest caused by the European war situation, there is some danger of the farmers and poultry raisers selling off their laying hens and pullets so closely that their profits from this branch of agriculture will be seriously affected during the next year, according to a report following an investigation by a poultry committee of the Missouri Federation of Commercial Clubs. Upon a recent visit to Eldorado Springs, it was found that the poultry and eggs shipped from that place amounted to more than all the receipts from the sale of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep combined. And this is a splendid stock raising section. At other places we are told that the poultry products amount to more than the receipts from the sale of either wheat or corn, and in some places as much as both combined.

"More dry goods, grocery, clothing, and shoe bills are paid by the products from the poultry yard than by most any other one thing," says A. L. Hart.

committee chairman. "Our state labor bureau states that the surplus poultry products of the state amount to about $50,000,000 each year. By actual test at our Missouri poultry experiment station, it has been shown that the hen which has been allowed to have range will make over half of her living by eating bugs, worms, grass, tender weeds, and such waste products from which the farmer would not receive anything if it was not for the hens. by Missouri farmers because of the little advance in the price of feed.

"Because of this situation there is great danger of many fine flocks, which it has taken years to breed and perfect, being sacrificed this fall and winter. This war is causing feed to advance in price, but it will also cause eggs, poultry and practically all other food products to advance in proportion. The price of eggs is going to be high beyond a doubt. The question with you ought to be, 'How to Get the Eggs.' There will be a great demand next season for eggs and stock for breeding purposes. Our advice is not to decrease your flock in size so that your business will be crippled this winter or next season.

"On the whole we have harvested normal grain crops this year. Beef mutton and pork are scarce and high, and are rapidly advancing in price and continually getting scarcer. The world must depend upon the United States largely for its food stuffs. One of our own Missouri packing plants has received an order from Canada within the last few days for a million pounds of dressed poultry. Some of this we understand is for export to England. The greatest opportunity that ever offered itself to American farmers lies before them within the next few years. It will take these warring nations several years to recover from the effects of the war, even if it should close now.

"I don't advise overdoing the thing. I would not keep a surplus of males not fit for sale or for use as breeders. Don't keep a lot of drones or dead beats, or a lot of old hens which have outlived their usefulness. Get rid of all dead weight, but do not become unnecessarily alarmed and sacrifice a valuable flock which is almost certain to make you good money before the next season has closed."

HOW ARMY TALKS

SIGNAL CORPS A GREAT AID TO WAR MOVEMENTS.

SCIENCE MAKES CHANGE

Modern Inventions Are Adopted By Fighting Forces—European War Proves Their Value.

As a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, an army maneuver no matter how carefully planned, may fail at a crucial moment. The essential of any plan, is that it shall be communicated, and also that it be understood.

It is the duty of army science to meet any demand that gives increased efficiency and when tacticians, familiar with conveniences such as the telephone, telegraph and communicating means of civilians, saw the value of similar conveniences in the army, the request for them was made. In the army all requests are spelled with four letters m-u-s-t.

The request was received and referred and the signal corps was "requested" to answer it. They did, and so well, that the armies lean on their answer.

A Big Advance.

From the Marathon runner of the ancients, to the wireless method of sending and receiving messages, has been a long jump; but the jump has been made. Throughout the entire system of communication methods have been improved until today the signal corps of the armies are so efficient, that they laughingly take the responsibility of the entire communication system, and by personal daring and scientific handling of inventions defy mistake by their almost failproof means.

"The message to Garcia" is now delivered by a choice of one of several routes, and any choice is a sure one.

The ordinary means of message transmission on a battle field would be useless. Noise, confusion, destruction would tear up any one system in a short time. But the time of combat is the time when messages are important and vital. The signal service must meet that necessity. It does so with four or more separate systems—each system built to meet the storm demands.

The Methods Used.

Men, horses, mechanics and electricity are used in the field. They act collectively and they act separately. The weakness and strength of each unit is known. Wireless, effective in transmission is nonsecret for general communication. Aeroplanes are swift, but frail. When an aeroplane fails, the messenger and the message are lost. Wires are easily severed and man and horse vulnerable to attack.

Notwithstanding all these methods of communication are sure and swift, and are responsible.

Wireless towers, varying in size and strength to the demands on them, are a part of the regular equipment. Each regiment of cavalry carries a small 2-wheeled wagon loaded with batteries, strapped to which are section rods four feet long. These rods are like sectional fishing rods. At any time or place these rods can be formed into a 40-foot tower. An extensive distribution of these towers places practically all of the army fighting units in communication.

Places Lines at a Gallop.

For service of a mile or less, topography permitting, the horse and rider are used. That combination is used also in perhaps the most picturesque method—that of buzzer, or a telegraph-like wire service. The rider carries a reel of small insulated wire, weighing but ten pounds to the mile, and effective for points up to ten miles. He carries his small buzzer and as he rides at any speed, from walk to gallop, his wire is released along on the ground behind him. His boots are fitted with a spike. While riding at full speed he can dismount, sink the spike, and be in telegraphic connection with the post.

The field telephone, with a stouter construction, is capable of greater strain. Both instruments and wire are especially made for hard service. A

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

Mother! Don't Hesitate! If cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

central point, where all field telephones connect, has capacity for twenty lines—sufficient to connect a brigade.

Keep Army in Communication.

The aeroplane is used mostly for scouting. The dirigible has a wireless built into it and can receive and transmit messages, whereas the aeroplane can only send messages.

The whole communicating service is quickly installed and is fortified in every possible way. The service extends right into the battle line, and as the army advances the service builds along with it. Barbed wire fences are used and every possible contingency safeguarded. Lines in the front, thrown out loose, are caught up and made stable by the line men following.

The lines in the rear are made permanent, the lines in the advance are open. The whole system—the wire, wireless, motor cycle, motor car, horse and the riders—all combine to prevent failure, and to furnish its army, of whatever size, with uninterrupted means of communication.—Kansas City Star.
